EMERGING MARKETS INVESTMENT BANK CRASNER CAPITAL RELOCATES AHEAD OF RAPID 2020 EXPANSION

CRASNER CAPITAL, AN AWARD WINNING INVESTMENT BANK FOUNDED BY NICK CRASNER, HAS RELOCATED ITS GLOBAL HEADQUARTERS IN LONDON

Crasner Capital, an award winning Investment Bank founded by Nick Crasner, has relocated its global headquarters in London ahead of what is set to be a year of rapid expansion.

The Firm, which has continued to be recognized as the go-to M&A advisory firm for Emerging Markets deals, will relocate to City Tower, 40 Basinghall Street, in December 2019.

As the Firm relocates its operations to the prestigious address just moments away from the Bank of England, Crasner Capital will now also have access to state of the art meeting rooms on Berkeley Square in the heart of Mayfair, the home of Emerging Markets private equity firms.

Crasner Capital's London office has delivered impressive growth year on year, and the City Tower space, with additional meeting rooms in Mayfair, will allow Nick Crasner to scale the business with an aggressive growth strategy focused on building the world's premier boutique Investment Banking firm.

The Firm has already identified lateral teams of Investment Bankers to join the entrepreneurial platform throughout the course of 2020.

Nick Crasner, Chairman of Crasner Capital, commented on the move stating: "Unlike many of our larger competitors, we have delivered ahead of budget in 2019. With a strong balance sheet, we plan to expand strategically by attracting high profile teams from bulge brackets. Our office move will give us the space to grow whilst ensuring our team and our clients will have access to state of the art facilities"
